

INTER-CULTURAL GARDENS

...to create social contacts between migrants and local people

...to enhance peaceful neighbourly relations

...to assist refugees in feeling at home in the new country

...to get active through meaningful work close to nature

...to bring nature into the city

...to harvest the self-grown garden produce together

An inter-cultural garden is a community garden run mostly on ecological lines, planted by people of diverse origins, cultures and religions.

INTERKULTURELLE GÄRTEN
JARDINS INTERCULTURELS
GIARDINI INTERCULTURALI
SCHWEIZ SUISSE SVIZZERA

www.interkulturelle-gaerten.ch info@interkulturelle-gaerten.ch

Verein Interkulturelle Gärten Schweiz 3000 Bern Alternative Bank ABS IBAN: CH91.08390.031.065.010.000